

The Daily Bee. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Wednesday Morning, Oct. 11. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 5 cents per week. By Mail, $1.00 per year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. H. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. Sherraden makes photographs. The Royal Arcanum holds an informal business meeting this evening.

The Rescues hose company meets this evening at the city building on business. Orders for toys and small musical instruments are coming in thick and fast at Mueller's.

Permit to wed was yesterday granted to George Harrison and Abbie Siedner, of Silver Creek. It is about time that some one of the more judicious men and things were brought to justice?

—Tonight Fay Templeton appears at Doherty's, and to-morrow evening Whiteley shows his hand—"Hidden Hand."

—The walks in Bayliss' park are in a horrible condition, they will not be fitted for standing any grief in the way of rain.

—The young people of the Methodist church here formed a Chautauqua literary circle for mutual improvement.

—Cheap railroad tickets to all points. Bushnell, five doors north of postoffice, sells them. Entrance on Main or Pearl streets.

—Pat McCann was in the police court yesterday, charged with being drunk, and he was fined the usual assessment, $7.50.

—A crowd of bees feeding on some spilled honey on the sidewalk near the express office made the spot one to be avoided yesterday.

—Our friend Mueller is nowadays very busy filling orders for toys and small musical instruments.

—Officer Sterling captured a lively bluejay on Broadway the other night, but concluded not to keep him caged, and let him loose.

—Mattresses, spring beds and lounges, as well as the best and latest of upholstered goods can be found at E. F. Stockert & Co.'s, 309 Broadway.

—The gentlemen having the management of the Knights of Labor hall on next Friday night, deserve much credit. They guarantee in advance an assured success.

—The glass in the front door of the Boston tea company's store was broken Monday night in some mysterious way, but if the latent was burglary the plan failed to carry.

—There were burglarious prowlers around C. E. Dawson's residence Monday night, but a wide-awake dog drove them off and chased one of the fellows a block or more.

—General Dodge was presented to the city a lot of ground 200 feet square, as an addition to Fairmont park on the southeast, for which the citizens feel duly grateful.

—Charles Winslow, who is serving time for a plain drunk, has acted so ugly that the officers ornamented his legs with a ball and chain, and yesterday afternoon he was on exhibition in front of the city building.

—Joseph Reiter makes the Finest Suits in the latest styles, at the lowest possible prices. His merchant tailoring establishment is at 210 Upper Broadway, Council Bluffs.

—The new meat shop of Shull & Mullen, south Main street, guarantee prompt attention, the best meats, and at the lowest prices of any shop in the city.

—Joseph Ross, the upper Broadway cooper, desires to purchase 50,000 hoop poles. He also wishes to employ ten extra coopers. Write to or inquire at his cooper shop.

—For the latest styles of parlor furniture, for upholstery work of all kinds, for the most complete assortment of lamprequis, poles, shades and curtains, go to E. F. Stockert & Co., 309 Broadway.

—A bad hole on Main street caused several teams to stick and teamsters to swear yesterday. It was by Thall's new building, and where the gas pipe had been laid into the building the dirt had not been sufficiently braced so as to make it solid.

—The police headquarters are locked during the evenings, and night, just the time when most devilry is going on. If any one needs a policeman after dark, he has got to find them by hunting them up and down the streets, yelling murder, or something of that sort, or else do without.

—Lost.—A red morocco memorandum book, within a block of the corner of Pearl and Broadway. Has a steel clasp. It contained a thousand mile ticket over the Chicago & Northwestern railroad. Ten dollars reward offered for its return to Foster Bros., druggists, Council Bluffs.

—The report of the public library for September shows 541 books taken, and 1,064 books taken. The books thus drawn are classified as follows: Fiction 650, poetry and essays 151, history and biography 113, travels 60, natural science 25, theology 25, philosophy 10. Fiction here, as elsewhere, seems to lead in popularity by great odds.

—Some of the prisoners in the county jail complain that they have to fight vermin too much of the time. Two or three prisoners who have been brought in there lately were so covered with swarming vitality, as to necessitate the burning of their clothes, and a general scrubbing up, but some of the vermin were evidently not destroyed, and are populating the jail rapidly, despite the efforts put forth to stay them.

—C. R. Scott entered complaint before Justice Abbott yesterday against W. S. Pettibone and others, charging them with making trespass in having removed dirt from a bluff owned or controlled by said Scott, the dirt having been used to fill up a hole in Hall's addition. There were in all about eighty loads thus taken. Mr. Scott appeared yesterday in the case in complaint, as prosecuting attorney as as a witness, and the court holding that it was technically a violation of the law on Mr. Pettibone's part, the latter was fined $5 and costs. A like case brought against L. C. Estes and his son, who drew the dirt away by direction of Mr. Pettibone, has gone over until Tuesday next.

—Last evening there was a large attendance and a joyous time at the wheelbarrow festival at the Congregational church parlors. The "wheelbarrow" appellation was earned by dishing up ice cream in miniature glass wheelbarrows which made very unique and tempting dishes, and which were sold with the cream. There was also a pleasant programme, consisting of music, tableaux, recitations, etc. The evening was thus spent most happily by all in attendance.

—The Spanish cattle man, who was knocked down and robbed Monday night, remained in the city yesterday and kept up his hunt after the fellows who served him so roughly. He spied one of them, or thought he did, on Broadway, but was too lame to give the fellow chase. The fellow on seeing him turned hurriedly down a side street, and Officer Edgar, being informed, followed after him in hot haste, but only succeeded in tracking him a short distance.

—Among the excellent group pictures which appear, fourteen members of company A, Twenty-ninth Iowa infantry, who were here at the reunion, and who improved this opportunity of being photographed together. Among the familiar faces are those of Captain J. P. Williams and Wall McFadden, who show up as handsome as in life. Among the others are Sergeants McGinnis, Musser, Hiram Lewis, Captain Dan Johnson, Privates Ben McGinnis, Sam Underwood, Billy West, Oliver Paine, William Babb and Charles Alexander. The Ex has been favored with one of these photos, which it has placed on the wall of its sanctum as a memento of the reunion.

—The Presbyterian society have been looking about for a pastor ever since the departure of Dr. Cleland for Keokuk, but have not come to a decision until Monday night, when at a meeting held at the church it was decided to extend a call to Rev. F. D. Coyle, of Fort Dodge, who occupied the pulpit here last Sunday. It is not known whether the reverend gentleman will accept the call, or whether the congregation at Fort Dodge will let him go, they being thoroughly attached to him, and he to them, but it is probable that the desired arrangements will in some way be made. Rev. Mr. Coyle has gained the reputation of being one of the best preachers which the church has in the state, and outside of the pulpit possessing other equally desirable qualifications as a pastor. The church has shown wisdom in trying to secure him.

Escaped from the Tolls.—John Bacon, Laporte, Ind., writes: "Hurray for Spring Blossom; it's all you recommend it to be. My dyspepsia has all vanished. Why don't you advertise it? What allowance will you make if I take a dozen bottles, so that I could oblige my friends occasionally?" Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents.

Domains In Satin, Plush and Diagonal Beaver, at HARKNESS, ORCUTT & CO'S.

Notice to the Ladies of Council Bluffs: That the tailor system of cutting will be taught this week at No. 28, North 6th street, by J. CARTER and WIFE, General Agents.

FOR SALE. My residence, No. 715 Fourth street (Barcroft). L. F. MURPHY.

Announcement. To the Voters of Kane Township. I hereby announce myself as an independent candidate for constable, subject to the voice of the voters on ensuing election. C. W. WEAVER.

Experientia Docet. We must tell some men a great deal to teach them a little, but the knowledge of the curative properties of SPRING BLOSSOM in cases of sick headache, indigestion, and biliousness is bought by experience. Price 50 cents, trial bottles ten cents.

An informal business meeting of the Royal Arcanum Council will be held in the parlors of their hall Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is desired.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE. For Rent. A house of five rooms, wells, cistern, etc., near shot tower. ODELL & DAY.

PERSONAL. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Elwell have gone east on a two weeks pleasure trip. J. W. Miller, of Marysville, Mo., brother-in-law of Dr. Rice, is in the city. F. W. Spetman has gone east to buy goods. D. Holst accompanied him so far as Chicago. C. S. Clark, of the Nonpareil, was yesterday at Neola, to see his sister, Mrs. Remington, who is quite ill. H. Beecroft is among the last reported as being in a bestial state of mind. The little one is a girl and boasts eleven pounds of healthy activity. Jacob Sims, Esq., has been spending a day or two at Guthrie Center, looking after some business in the district court, in session there. Capt. Price is among those who rose early enough to see the great comet, and he says the last sleep is more than made up for by the sight. He has seen a goodly number in his lifetime but he pronounces this much bigger than any he has seen before.

Hon. J. W. Muffy, of Des Moines, who is making greenback speeches, is in the city stopping at the Pacific house, together with his son T. B. Muffy, also of Des Moines, and Charles Martie, of Atlantic. These young gentlemen are excellent singers, and furnish music for the meetings, while the elder Muffy furnishes the oratory. They found no great outpouring of greenbackers to welcome them here, and so overworking audience, although Mr. Muffy as a speaker and thinker certainly merits a hearing.

A Short Road to Health. To all who are suffering from boils, ulcers, scrofula, osteomyelitis, or other obstinate diseases of the blood and skin, a course of BEEHOCK BLOOD PURIFIER will be found to be a short road to health. Price $1.00.

Friendie. Dress Finishes in all the new shades, for fall and winter wear, at HARKNESS, ORCUTT & CO'S.

PROBABLY POSTPONED. The New City Jail So Hurdled Built on Paper Will Be Slowly Built on the Ground.

A Council Who Are Hasty in Planning But Slow in Executing.

Notwithstanding the hurrah which has been made over the building of a new city jail there is not much likelihood of there being anything done this fall at least toward making the enterprise anything but one of words and wind. The city council was in great haste to get the building up, had plans and specifications drawn, advertised for bids both for having it built and for an architect to superintend its construction. The bids were opened and would have been awarded but for a blind wording in the lowest bid, by which it was doubtful what was meant. An attempt was made, on the evening the bids were opened, to find this bidder, and the failure to do so was the only apparent cause for not awarding the contract, and the matter was left to a committee with power to act. It looked as if the enterprise was to be pushed right along and was so talked.

The aldermen after getting thus far along, began to look at the financial side of matters and the condition of the city well indicated that the jail could not be built this fall and paid for in cash, without causing a material change in other plans decided upon. The council wants to bring warrants up to par, and to effect this has decided to donate $1,000 a month to a sinking fund to pay off all warrants. To issue warrants for building the jail would be digging one hole to fill up another. Then those who bid on the new jail expected cash instead of promises to pay, and would probably want to put in different bids if they are paid in warrants.

Then the Indian creek or sewerage improvement is costing much ready cash. In view of all these financial facts it is doubtful about the new jail being started up at all this fall.

The present council with all its good points has one weak one, which marks its deliberations. It jumps like a wild school boy into some scheme, impulsively formed, and then backs up, either to start over again or give it up altogether. The financial side of the jail building ought to have been considered and decided upon first. Good business men first of all decide whether they have the needed money before they jump into a scheme.

The new jail is needed badly. The present one is only fit for the vermin which thrive in its cracks and crevices, and not fit for humans at all, but it is purposed to patch it up, so, if the new jail is not started this fall, and make it do for the winter. An additional cell can be made by putting in another partition, cutting off a portion of the office, and this may be done.

Noting the Effects.—R. Gibbs, of Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "Hearing your BEEHOCK BLOOD PURIFIER favorably spoken of, I was induced to watch their effects, and find that in chronic disease of the blood, liver and kidneys your bitter has been signally marked with success. I have used myself with best results, for torpidity of the liver; and in the case of a friend of mine suffering from dropsy, the effect was marvelous." Price $1.00.

NOTICE. Arrangements have been made to have all the engines and carts hitched up for practice three times per day. The bell at Rescue engine house will give one tap at 9 a. m., 12 m. and 8 p. m., which will be the signal for hitching up.

Woods, the Dallas City marshal, who is charged with manslaughter, is that he shot a man who was voyaging down the Mississippi in a stolen skiff, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000.

The Circus Royal had a sleeping car burned on the track at Des Moines on the night of the 4th inst. The machinery of the water works was undergoing repair and the fire department, though present, could do nothing. The warehouse of Madam Spatula, the fat woman, was consumed. The Register reporter says that it was in a valuable and contained underware.

The following are interesting facts concerning the state capital at Des Moines: It is 365 feet long from north to south, 93 feet in breadth from cornice stone to cornice, and 274 feet to the top of the central dome, the latter point being 1,552 feet above the level of the sea. The exterior measurement of the walls is 1,464 feet. In the first story are two twenty-nine rooms, and the second will contain the library and two legislative halls, with a couple of dozen smaller rooms. The edifice has cost up to date about $2,000,000, and will take fully $5,000,000 more to complete it.

CORNING NOTES. CORNING, Iowa, October 8.—Since my last, several things of importance have happened here, and some of them I will try to enumerate for the benefit of the readers of your valuable journal. On September 17th the residence of James McConkey was burned, together with nearly all the contents, at a loss of about $1,600, all covered by insurance. Cause, a defective flue. On the 22d of September the colored people of this vicinity celebrated Emancipation day. There were many colored people from a distance present. There was a large crowd from the country in town and all seemed to enjoy themselves. Speeches were made in the grove by H. M. Towner, Thos. L. Maxwell, both attorneys of this place, and by Harrison Venable, a colored man of Corning. The day closed with a festival and ball in the evening.

On the 26th the republican county convention was held, and W. B. McLaughlin was re-nominated for clerk of courts, and D. E. Hemphill was re-nominated for recorder, both by acclamation, and without a dissenting voice.

A couple of weeks ago S. Fletcher, a telegraph operator at this place, left for parts unknown, with about $100 of the money belonging to the company, and information was filed, and a warrant issued, but he has not been captured yet. If he should be he will probably have a chance to make the acquaintance of the warden of the penitentiary.

Last week S. A. Stover was nearly killed by some wagon bed bottoms falling upon him. They were standing on end against the side of the building. They weighed about 800 pounds. He was immediately released, and at last accounts was recovering, but it will be some time before he is able to go to work, as he was injured internally.

On Thursday last E. H. Shaw, assistant postmaster, was married to Miss C. Oidecrusen. They went to Omaha on a short trip, but have returned and will go at once to house-keeping. They are both very popular with the young people of this vicinity, and all unite in wishing them happiness.

Hon. W. P. Hepburn, our representative in congress, opens the campaign in this county at Carbon on Monday evening, and on Tuesday afternoon he speaks at Grove park in Corning. It is intended that a grand republican rally at that time and place. He will carry this district for re-election by a large majority.

On last Friday a game of base ball was played here between the bank clerk nine and the legal and medical fraternity, which resulted in a victory for the medical and legal nine by a score of 10 to 18.

Will close until our NEXT.
